A.L. Awarded Firm of the Year for Organic Growth at the Legal Community Italian Awards 2024

At the seventh edition of the LC Legal Community Italian Awards, A.L. Assistenza Legale emerged as the distinguished winner in the “Firm of the Year for Organic Growth” category.

This significant recognition highlights the remarkable development and expansion the network has achieved over the past year, positioning itself as one of the fastest-growing legal entities nationwide.

A.L. Assistenza Legale, active in various legal fields including labor law, data protection, IP&TMT, and real estate, distinguished itself in 2024 by doubling its number of lawyers and offices. This substantial organic growth, coupled with the high quality of services provided, earned the network this prestigious award.

The Italian Awards, organized by LC Publishing Group, are one of the leading accolades dedicated to excellence in the Italian legal market. Journalists, analysts, and industry professionals recognized A.L. Assistenza Legale as one of the most dynamic and rapidly rising legal entities in the country, rewarding its efforts and achievements.

“We are extremely proud of this important recognition, which reflects our team’s constant commitment and our ability to meet the increasingly complex needs of our clients,” said Cristiano Cominotto, co-founder of A.L. “This award motivates us to continue on the path of excellence and innovation, providing high-level legal services.”

The victory at the LC Legal Community Italian Awards 2024 confirms A.L. Assistenza Legale’s prominent role in the Italian legal landscape, acknowledging its ability to seize market opportunities and expand its presence nationwide.

This milestone is significant for the network as it prepares to further consolidate its leading position in the legal sector.
